

KENNEDY MARIE LAMBETH

May 25, 2013 - January 21, 2017

Kennedy had touched so many in her short, yet memorable life. Her laugh was contagious and her smile would light up any room.

Kennedy had a love for riding her pony, music and she adored her older brother, her best friend. She taught us about persistence and never giving up.

Kennedy fought hard and truly showed others what it meant to enjoy and be grateful for life. She only knew the happiness the world held and was always sharing that with anyone who knew her.

We are forever grateful for all the wonderful memories we shared. Not a day goes by that I don't think of you and smile or cry... or both.

Till we can be together again, my sweet princess, I will see you in my dreams.
