

Kevin Gabriel Carosa

April 1, 1988 – August 31, 2009

His laughter, his wit, his zest for life
was truly shown the year he fought cancer.

He taught so many that life was worth living even when you are fighting for your life.

His motto was Live Awesome.

*We are living each day
missing him,
loving him,
and trying our hardest to Live Awesome.*
